ITAS / Re-entry Permit

Facts as at 13/10/2026

Who this is for

Foreign nationals with an Indonesian temporary stay visa, who receive a temporary stay permit (ITAS) when they arrive, and ITAS holders who need to extend it.

At a glance

Who it is for: Foreign nationals with an Indonesian temporary stay visa, who receive a temporary stay permit (ITAS) when they arrive, and ITAS holders who need to extend it.
Validity: 180 days, 1 year or 2 years for most visa types

Why people choose it

Limited-stay permit and re-entry after a visa index is approved.

Eligibility

What you need to show: ITAS is granted at the immigration checkpoint to holders of a temporary stay visa. If your ITAS needed a statement of commitment, you must show it has been met before an extension.
Work: Not stated by the official source.
Sponsor: If you have a sponsor, an extension needs the sponsor's letter and the identity card and/or family card of the sponsor or person in charge.
Other conditions: A re-entry permit lets you leave and return while it is valid.
Renewable: Yes
Renewal: ITAS can generally be renewed for a duration not exceeding the initial permit grant, provided the total stay does not exceed 6 years (or up to 10 years for permits initially granted for 5 years, and up to 3 years for maritime permits).

Income & Capital requirements

Extensions are available for listed purposes such as work, investment, family reunification, second home, study and people aged 60 or over.

Documents

For an extension: your passport, an integration statement (not needed for unmarried children under 18), your ITAS, and the sponsor's letter and ID if you have a sponsor. Apply no earlier than 30 days before a permit of up to 1 year expires (3 months for longer permits), and no later than the expiry day

Tier Duration

Re-entry permits are issued for up to 30 days, 1 year, 2 years, 5 years or 10 years
