Facts as at 13/10/2026

Who this is for

Foreign nationals coming to Indonesia on a temporary stay visa, for example for work, investment, family reunification, study or second home, who receive a temporary stay permit (ITAS) on arrival.

At a glance

Who it is for: Foreign nationals coming to Indonesia on a temporary stay visa, for example for work, investment, family reunification, study or second home, who receive a temporary stay permit (ITAS) on arrival.

Why people choose it

Umbrella for limited-stay (VITAS / ITAS) routes. The index code decides the activity.

Eligibility

What you need to show: You need a temporary stay visa. ITAS is then granted at the immigration checkpoint when you arrive.
Other conditions: If you apply and pay for an extension before your ITAS expires, you are not treated as overstaying while it is processed.
Renewable: Yes
Renewal: An extension may be granted for a duration not exceeding the validity of the first permit, with total stay typically not exceeding 6 years, or up to 10 years for certain 5-year permits (such as foreign investment and second-home visas).

Documents

To extend: your passport, an integration statement (not needed for unmarried children under 18), your ITAS, and the sponsor's letter and ID if you have a sponsor

Tier Duration

Extensions of 2 years or more, and extensions for nationals of calling-visa countries, need the Director General's approval
