SojournHub

MALAYSIA

Long-Term Social Visit Pass (parent)

Facts as at 10/10/2026

Who this is for

Parent of a Malaysian citizen (and related elderly/family sponsor categories) seeking a Long Term Social Visit Pass.

At a glance

This Long-Term Social Visit Pass is for people aged 60 and over with no family in their home country and family in Malaysia willing to support them. The sponsor must be a child, child-in-law or sibling earning RM2,000 a month or more.
Who it is for: Parent of a Malaysian citizen (and related elderly/family sponsor categories) seeking a Long Term Social Visit Pass.
Validity: minimum 6 months
Renewal: Renewable

Why people choose it

For a parent of a Malaysian citizen. Conditions are narrower than a spouse pass.

Eligibility

What you need to show: Aged 60 or over, with no family in the home country. Sponsor is a child, child-in-law or sibling in Malaysia earning at least RM2,000 a month.
Minimum age: Elderly category references age ≥60 with Malaysian family sponsor (IMI LTSVP materials).
Work: Not a work pass by itself (conditions narrower than spouse pass).
Sponsor: Malaysian citizen child / family sponsor as required by category.
Other conditions: renewable subject to Immigration.

Income & Capital requirements

For elderly ≥60 with Malaysian family sponsor: sponsor income ≥ RM2,000 (IMI LTSVP extract).
Other parent categories: confirm live checklist.

Documents

Published parent/elderly category
Relationship and sponsor evidence
Immigration application

Tier Duration

Often issued 6 to 12 months at a time (product framing)

Your quote

Fees are confirmed in your personal quote.