SojournHub

MALAYSIA

Malaysia visa exemption

Facts as at 07/10/2026

Who this is for

Ordinary travellers whose nationality is visa-exempt for a social visit on arrival per the IMI country table.

At a glance

Who it is for: Ordinary travellers whose nationality is visa-exempt for a social visit on arrival per the IMI country table.
Stay: Often 30 or 90 days, nationality-specific

Why people choose it

Some passports enter for a social visit without a visa sticker. Not a work route.

Eligibility

What you need to show: ASEAN nationals (except Myanmar): visa not required for stay of less than one (1) month visa required if stay exceeds one month, except Brunei and Singapore nationals (IMI country page). India citizens: visa exempt until 31 December 2026 (IMI note). Exact stay for each nationality: verify country row.
Nationality: Fully nationality-specific. Verify your passport’s row on the IMI table including any air-only or time-limited notes.
Work: Not a work route. Social visit only.
Other conditions: Single journey social visit as granted at entry.

Documents

Eligible nationality on IMI table
Valid passport
Admission still decided by Immigration at the border

Your quote

Fees are confirmed in your personal quote.