SojournHub

SINGAPORE

Miscellaneous Work Pass

Facts as at 13/10/2026

Who this is for

Foreign speakers, religious workers, journalists and similar short-term assignments needing a Miscellaneous Work Pass.

At a glance

The Miscellaneous Work Pass is for short assignments of up to 60 days, such as speaking at a seminar or conference on religion, race or a cause, giving religious talks, or reporting as a journalist not sponsored by a Singapore government agency. A Singapore-based organisation must sponsor you. It cannot be renewed and family passes are not available.
Who it is for: Foreign speakers, religious workers, journalists and similar short-term assignments needing a Miscellaneous Work Pass.
Stay: Up to 60 days for the assignment
Validity: Up to 60 days is a common cap
Renewal: Not renewable

Why people choose it

Short assignments of up to 60 days: seminar speakers, religious workers and journalists.

Eligibility

What you need to show: Short activities such as performances or religious work as framed on MOM Work Passes index.
Work: Only for the approved short activity.
Other conditions: It cannot be renewed and there are no family passes. You may only take part in the activity at the venue and dates in the approval letter, and you also need a Short-Term Visit Pass, issued when you arrive.
Work: Eligible foreigners on short-term assignments, such as speakers at a seminar, religious workers or journalists.

Documents

Activity fits Miscellaneous Work Pass scope
Apply via MOM before performing the activity

Your quote

Fees are confirmed in your personal quote.

Approval is never guaranteed. Information available, not legal advice.
Get your free personal quote at sojournhub.io