At a glance

Who it is for: Most foreign visitors (visa-exempt or after entry visa) admitted for short stay under a Visit Pass / electronic Visit Pass (e-Pass).
Stay: Often up to 30 or 90 days

Why people choose it

The stay permission issued at the checkpoint. Not a work pass.

Eligibility

What you need to show: Period of stay granted as Visit Pass (e-Pass) at the checkpoint. Passport generally ≥6 months validity (except Singapore passport holders). Sufficient funds and onward travel expectations stated for short-term travellers. Nationality-specific typical stay lengths are not published as a single overview figure — check e-Pass after arrival.
Nationality: Visa-required nationals must hold an entry visa before travel; visa-exempt nationals seek Visit Pass at entry.
Work: Working on a short-term visit pass is prohibited (ICA). Sustained employment requires a MOM work pass.
Other conditions: May extend via STVP extension if eligible.

Income & Capital requirements

Sufficient funds expectations stated for short-term travellers (ICA/MFA).

Documents
