Work Pass Exempt Activities

Facts as at 10/10/2026

Who this is for

Foreigners performing short-term activities that MOM lists as work-pass exempt, with required notification.

At a glance

Some short-term work, such as speaking at seminars, journalism, exhibitions and sports, can be done without a work pass. You must be engaged before you arrive, hold a valid visit pass, and notify MOM after arriving and before starting. You can do this for up to 90 days in a calendar year in total. Business meetings, conferences as a participant and trade visits do not need notification.
