SojournHub

THAILAND

LTR — Dependent

Facts as at 07/10/2026

Who this is for

Legal spouse and children under 20 of an LTR visa holder.

At a glance

Who it is for: Legal spouse and children under 20 of an LTR visa holder.

Why people choose it

For a spouse or child of an LTR holder. Not an independent work visa.

Eligibility

What you need to show: Relationship to an LTR principal consent/sponsorship form as required on the LTR portal. Same-sex marriages recognised for the dependent category unmarried partnerships not recognised.
Work: Not an independent work visa; work rights follow LTR programme rules for dependents where applicable.
Sponsor: Sponsored by / linked to the principal LTR holder (max 4 dependents).
Other conditions: Children must be under 20. Same duration framework as the principal LTR.
Renewable: Yes
Renewal: Initial stay is granted for 5 years, which can be extended for 5 additional years if qualifications are maintained
Work: Allowed with a Digital Work permit; permitted to work temporarily while the work permit request is in process

Income & Capital requirements

Per dependent: health insurance of at least USD 50,000, OR Thai social security, OR deposit of at least USD 25,000 held for at least 12 months.
health insurance of at least USD 50,000 OR Thai social security OR deposit of at least USD 25,000 per dependent held for at least 12 months

Documents

Proof of legal spouse or child under 20 relationship
Insurance/social security/deposit alternative
Linked LTR application

Your quote

Fees are confirmed in your personal quote.