Non-Immigrant B (employment)

Facts as at 10/10/2026

Who this is for

Persons intending to take up employment in Thailand.

At a glance

The Non-Immigrant visa, category "B", is for people who want to work or do business in Thailand. It is valid for 3 months, or 1 year with multiple entries, and each entry gives up to 90 days. Qualifying holders can apply in Thailand for a one-year extension of stay; this is at the Immigration officer's discretion.
Who it is for: Persons intending to take up employment in Thailand.
Stay: Up to 90 days per entry, extendable in Thailand at Immigration's discretion
Validity: 3 months, or 1 year multiple entry

Why people choose it

For taking up employment in Thailand. Needs an employer and, separately, a work permit.

Eligibility

What you need to show: MFA Non-Immigrant B purpose includes work. Employer letter / Dept of Employment documents typically required for work cases. A work permit is separate and mandatory to work.
Work: Thai employer required; work permit required separately — foreigners may not work without a work permit regardless of visa type.
Sponsor: Thai employer sponsorship / employment documentation.
Other conditions: Bangkok Immigration lists multiple Non-B change pathways.

Income & Capital requirements

Applicants must provide financial evidence of at least 30,000 THB (such as bank statements for the last three months or a sponsor letter).

Documents

A passport valid for at least 6 months (18 months for a one-year visa), a completed application, a recent photo, proof of funds, and an offer of employment, the employer's company documents and a Ministry of Labour approval where required. A work permit is needed before starting work
