SojournHub

THAILAND

Visa on Arrival

Facts as at 10/10/2026

Who this is for

Nationals of VoA-eligible countries/territories entering for tourism.

At a glance

The Visa-on-Arrival (VOA) allows eligible nationals of specified countries to enter Thailand for tourism purposes. It permits a stay of up to 15 days upon application at designated immigration checkpoints.
Who it is for: Nationals of VoA-eligible countries/territories entering for tourism.
Stay: Often 15 days

Why people choose it

Airport or checkpoint visa for eligible passports and tourism.

Eligibility

What you need to show: PRD/MFA revision effective 15 September 2026: VoA eligible countries/territories reduced to three. Exact three names: confirm on current MFA VoA list.
Nationality: From 15 September 2026, only nationals of Azerbaijan, Belarus and Serbia can get a visa on arrival.
Work: Tourism only — not work.
Other conditions: Issued at designated ports of arrival (VoA counters).
Passport validity: 6 months
Renewal: Extensions are generally not permitted, except in special cases of illness preventing travel, where an application may be submitted to the Office of Immigration Bureau.

Documents

Application form, fully completed
One recent photo
Proof of means of living expenses at the amount of 10,000 Baht per person and 20,000 Baht per family accordingly
Passport with at least 6 month validity and at least 2 blank pages
Fully paid onward travel tickets which are usable within 30 days of the date of entry
Eligible nationality
Tourism purpose
Apply at VoA counter at designated port

Your quote

Fees are confirmed in your personal quote.