SojournHub

VIETNAM

Visa via overseas representative / checkpoint

Facts as at 07/10/2026

Who this is for

Applicants who obtain a Vietnam visa through a Vietnamese overseas representative mission, or who pick up a pre-approved visa at a border checkpoint under MOFA-listed cases.

At a glance

Visas can be issued by overseas Vietnamese visa-issuing authorities or directly at international checkpoints under specified conditions, following pre-approval or sponsorship procedures in Vietnam. They may be granted for single or multiple entries depending on the category and circumstance, with some direct overseas representations authorized to grant visas for stays of up to 30 days.
Who it is for: Applicants who obtain a Vietnam visa through a Vietnamese overseas representative mission, or who pick up a pre-approved visa at a border checkpoint under MOFA-listed cases.

Why people choose it

Visa issued through a mission or at a checkpoint when e-visa is not the path.

Eligibility

What you need to show: Must obtain the relevant visa approval before travel for checkpoint pickup embassy/mission stickers follow MOFA symbol and inviting/guaranteeing rules for the symbol requested.
Sponsor: Depends on visa symbol; inviting/guaranteeing agency or individual typically required for many symbols.
Other conditions: Validity and stay as stamped for the approved visa type.

Documents

Passport or valid international travel document
Visa application form with photo affixed
Valid passport
Visa approval document where required
Application at mission or pre-approval then border pickup

Your quote

Fees are confirmed in your personal quote.