VIETNAM

Temporary residence declaration

Facts as at 07/10/2026

Who this is for

Foreigners staying in Vietnam whose temporary residence must be declared by accommodation hosts / responsible parties.

At a glance

Foreigners temporarily residing in Vietnam must declare their temporary residence to the local police through the manager of their accommodation establishment, either online or using a declaration form.
Any change in temporary residence location or passport information requires a new declaration.
Foreigners may extend their temporary stay through their inviting or sponsoring agency, organization, or individual.
Who it is for: Foreigners staying in Vietnam whose temporary residence must be declared by accommodation hosts / responsible parties.

Why people choose it

A stay declaration. It is not a visa.

Eligibility

What you need to show: Mandatory temporary residence declaration via provincial Immigration web portals / forms (Circular 53/2016/TT-BCA referenced on Immigration content).
Other conditions: Duration equals the granted stay. This is not a visa and does not create a new stay right.
Renewal: Foreigners wishing to extend temporary residence must request their inviting or sponsoring agency, organization, or individual to directly submit an extension application document along with the foreigner's passport or international travel document to the immigration authority or the competent authority of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, which reviews the application within 5 working days.

Documents

Passport or valid international travel document
Documents related to residence in Vietnam
Temporary residence declaration form (if not declared electronically)
Declaration through provincial Immigration portals / accommodation systems after arrival
